1. On 13 June 1952, soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were seen in Kolin (O 51/L 33). Fifty to 60 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying baggage and furlough certificates, boarded a train which departed from Kolin.
2. About 80 individual soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with and without tank insignia and carrying baggage were seen boarding a train at the G. Trebova (Boehm. Truebay P 50/B 20) railroad station on 13 June 1952. An officer seen on the platform wore light-blue-bordered epaulets with longitudinal silver stripes and a gold star.
3. On 15 June 1952, a barracks consisting of 4 three-story buildings and 1 one-story building surrounded by a fence was seen on the west side of the road to Malacky (P 19/S 32), just north of a farm in Rosalka. The installation was guarded by a sentry who wore black-bordered red epaulets. Only a small number of soldiers were seen.
4. Numerous soldiers wearing black epaulets boarded a train in Pardubice (O 51/L 79) on 13 June 1952.
5. On 13 June 1952, a number of soldiers wearing red-bordered, white-bordered or silver-bordered epaulets stood on the platforms of the railroad stations in G. Lipa (Boehm. Leipa O 51/L 75) and Blada Boleslav (O 51/C 02). A soldier seen in Blada Boleslav wore red-bordered brown epaulets.
